

Dr Liz Geriatrics

WEBINAR SERIES

WEBINAR

Resolving Family Conflicts in Elder Care

with Kirsten Howe Esq

9/8/2021, 1pm PT

$15

“ My sister doesn't want Mom to move to memory care, but I'm exhausted from trying to care for her at home. We are at an impasse and don't know what to do. ”

— Sue

Professional CEUs

REGISTER NOW @ DrLizGeriatrics.com/Webinars

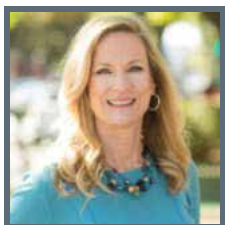

Nothing brings out lifelong tensions and resentments among siblings like caring for an elderly parent can. Potential conflicts: who should be the caregiver; what is appropriate care; how will care be paid for. Kirsten will discuss disagreements that families run into, what steps can be taken to avoid conflict, and approaches for minimizing and resolving conflicts that arise.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- 🌿 Planning opportunities for avoiding conflicts over decision making, including powers of attorney, advance health care directives and trusts
- 🌿 Government benefits to alleviate stress and disagreement over paying for care
- 🌿 Dispute resolution mechanisms available without court intervention
- 🌿 Employing professionals to avoid family burn-out

COURSE INCLUDES:

- 🌿 Course material
- 🌿 Competency test
- 🌿 Course evaluation
- 🌿 Certificate of completion
- 🌿 1 Professional CEU

Kirsten Howe Esq

Kirsten focuses on estate planning, trust administration, probate, special needs planning and Medi-Cal planning. She is dedicated to assisting families navigate the world of dementia and long-term care.

Dr Liz Geriatrics

For the last 20 years, our practice has provided premium geriatric assessments and consulting to other physicians. We've distilled our expertise into webinars providing professional training and skills for care for the most complex elder.